BAD RIDE BY MILLER

Gravesend's Opening.

Sir Dixon Mare Is Eased Up in Final Sixteenth, Owing to Overconfidence of Rider, and Dandelion from Beacon Light After Drive.

New York, Sept. 16.-Gravesend's fall meeting opened under the most favorable conditions to-day, the attendance being close to the 15,000 mark. Seven races were run and four favorites were defeated. The sensational event of the day was the Oriental Handicap at a mile and a quarter, in which there were five starters. It was narrowed at the end to a duel etween H. B. Duryea's Running Water, to 1, and T. R. Hitchcock's Dandelion, 8 to 5, the latter getting up in the last jump to win by a nose on the post in 2:042-5, a new track record.

A majority of the spectators were positive that Running Water could not have lost if Miller, through overconfidence, had not eased up the Sir Dixon mare in the final sixteenth. At that point she appeared to be winning easily, but Miller went all to pieces, dropped her head, and Dandelion beat her in the twinkling of an eye.

James R. Keene's Cabochon, 7 to 1 made the pace to the head of the stretch, with Dandelion keeping Running Water Then as Cabochon quit, Miller drew away with Mr. Duryea's $20,690 mare, only to spoil a well-earned victory 15 to 1, stood a hard drive from Radtke, and beat Beacon Light, 1, an added starter, half a length

The Flatlands Stakes for two-year-olds, ive and one-half furlongs, was easy for W. May's Please, who was con with Marbles at 3 to 1, favorite. #### ROSEBEN VS. COLIN.

Davy Johnson Wants Race, but It

Is Not Likely to Be Run. New York, Sept. 16 .- Davy Johnson is ooking for more worlds for Roseben to onquer, and this time is flying high. He s anxious to have his champion meet James R. Keene's unbeaten two-year-old Colin over the six-furlong route at weight for age. He is willing to wager from Beats Her-To-Kalon Gets Place $5,000 to $19,000 on the result, and wants the race to be held at the Belmont Park fall meeting.

While such a race would no doubt be nteresting and would attract thousands of persons to Belmont Park, there hardly s one chance in a thousand that it ever will be run. One of Colin's legs is worth more than all of Roseben's body. The two-year-old would gain nothing by defeating Roseben, and it is possible that such a race would put him out of business forever as a race horse. As a threevear-old it is possible that he will win nore than $100,000, and to run the risk of osing that for what he could gain by beating Roseben would be worse than

BOUT GOES FIFTEEN ROUNDS

Long Delay Caused by Lowe Insisting Upon Clean Break, Until Herford Threatened to Call Fight Off and Pefund Money-Sullivan Was $15 the Aggressor Throughout, ecial to The Washington Herald. Baltimore, Md., Sept. 16.-At the end of he fifteenth round of a fast bout, Kid Sullivan was handed the decision over Tommy Lowe to-night at the Germania Maennerchor Hall.

It was the opening bout of the season

romoted by Manager Al Herford, of the Eureka Athletic Club, and the matching of two Washington boxers was evidently a popular move, for there was a big turnout of the boxing fans, many coming over from Washington to witness the battle. It was clearly Sullivan's fight, but Lowe fought a remarkable clever battle when the conditions of the match are considered. Lowe, acting as a substitute had less than a week to train for the fight, and was not in his real form, while Accident Ends Work on Motor Part Sullivan had at least three weeks to prepare for the mill. There was a long wrangle before the fighters put up their hands, as to which style of rules would govern the bout. Lowe wanted the style of not hitting in the breakaway. Lowe held out for this style until Manager Herford threatened to call off the match and give the spectators their money back. This served to make Lowe change his pattle it out at any style, so the straight most instant death. Marquis of Queensberry rules, which Sullivan held out for, were agreed upon.

The twelfth round was practically the nottest of the mill, for this was probably the only time that Sullivan had Lowe really tired. He went at Lowe ammer and tongs, pounding at the body, and sent in a couple to the face. Tommy looked a bit worried at the end. However, Lowe came back strong and held out pretty well until the finish. When the decision was rendered by referee Fred Swigert, Sullivan was presented with a big bunch of flowers, which and been selected by Washingtonians to be given to the winner of the mill.
